

ENERGIZING ENTREPRENEURIAL COMMUNITIES

A Pathway to Prosperity

Source: Perry County Tribune, November 6 2018, provided by Rural Action

LINK

SPICE's collaboration efforts with Rural Action recognized

NEW LEXINGTON — Southern Perry Business Support Network recently received recognition from Rural Action as a 2018 Founding Member of the Entrepreneurial Communities Program in appreciation for the work SPBSN does to support entrepreneurship in rural Ohio.

The Southern Perry Business Support Network (SPBSN) is one of seven entrepreneurial teams working in southeast Ohio in partnership with Rural Action, ARC and the Center for Rural Entrepreneurship.

If you are a local business in Perry County and would like additional information on identifying resources and building connections feel free to join monthly work sessions.

For additional information, contact Melody Borchers, Microenterprise Business Consultant at 740-394-2200 melody.borchers@gmail.com.

Pictured from left is Fritzie Nitschke, Board President; Kayla McGloin-Smith, SPICE Program Assistant; Melody Borchers, SPICE Microenterprise Business Consultant; and Mike Steinmaus, owner of Wildwood Inn & Llama Farm LLC.

